

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DELAWARE JUDICIARY HOSTS THE DELAWARE HIGH SCHOOL MOCK TRIAL CHAMPIONSHIP COMPETITION

February 24, 2007

The Delaware Judiciary will host the semi-final and final rounds of the Delaware High School Mock Trial Championship Competition on Monday, February 26, 2007 beginning at 2 p.m. at the New Castle County Courthouse, 500 N. King Street, Wilmington. The Delaware High School Mock Trial Championship Competition is co-sponsored by the Delaware Law Related Education Center, the Delaware Judiciary, and the Delaware State Bar Association to assist high school students in learning in a practical setting the importance of the rule of law in our society. The winner of this year's competition will represent Delaware in the National High School Mock Trial Championship in Dallas, Texas May 10 – 12, 2007.

Over 235 members of Delaware's Judiciary, Delaware State Bar Association, Widener University School of Law students, and local college students volunteered their time to serve as judges during the 3 day championship. Delaware's High School Mock Trial Program began in 1991 – 1992 with 8 schools participating in a one day event. This year there are 28 teams from public and private schools statewide that were registered for the championship.

The Delaware Judiciary and the Delaware Law Related Education Center won the bid to host the 2008 National High School Mock Trial Championship at the New Castle Courthouse in Wilmington, May 7 – 11, 2008. In 2008, it is anticipated that over 1000 students, families, and teachers will be in attendance at the National Championship.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT

PAT QUANN AT 302-593-0647

OR

FRANNY HANEY AT 302-255-0093